ABOUT DAVID

David Ingram joined Hall Chadwick over 15 years ago and now holds the position of Partner, Insolvency & Business Recovery. With over 15 years of experience in corporate insolvency, business recovery and turnaround management David prides himself on providing accurate, timely and commercial advice for all stakeholders.

As a Registered Liquidator, David is responsible for overseeing all forms of insolvency appointments including receiverships, administrations and liquidations. A specialist in corporate insolvency, David has been involved in solving the financial problems of hundreds of businesses in a wide range of industries.

David believes Hall Chadwick's point of difference lies in its knowledgeable staff and the "practitioners' capacity to complete large and small appointments at a high quality, whilst achieving value-laden outcomes for all stakeholders."

David enjoys being exposed to different industries and the variety of challenges associated with his role. "Better still," he says, "solving the financial difficulties of a distressed entity and achieving a successful outcome for all stakeholders is a major source of satisfaction."

On the future direction of the firm, David says he looks forward to assisting Hall Chadwick to continue to grow whilst "providing quality advice and achieving successful outcomes for all our highly valued clients."
