DAVID LISSAUER

CHAIRMAN, HALL CHADWICK ASSOCIATION

David combines his experience as a business leader and a practitioner in public practice of more than 40 years in his role leading the association of independent firms that make up Hall Chadwick nationally. David has had a significant impact on the firm's service deliverables as we see them today. First and foremost, he led the Audit and Assurance, and the Accounting Services practices. Through his extensive network of local and international professional connections, David helped shaped the firm's service offering to Asian markets most particularly in the Indian, Sri Lankan and Vietnamese business communities.

David has mentored a significant number of the firm's graduate and junior accountants to senior positions. He currently mentors a number of young accountants as they undertake their CA professional year. He has also played a prominent role in practice management, marketing and strategy.

David holds a Bachelor of Commerce from Melbourne University, is a Fellow of the CPA, an associate member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants Australia, a registered company auditor and a Registered Superannuation Fund Auditor. He was previously a registered tax agent, a former foundation Peer Reviewer for CPA Australia and past member of CPA's Quality Review Assurance Committee (QRAC).
